PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

At this moment in our shared history, we are called to remember the places and people who carried us to where we stand today. Kinohi, meaning "the beginning," invites us to step into that remembering.

Through the powerful artistry of Amy Hānaiali'i and Kumu Micah Kamohoali'i, we witness a weaving of ancestral knowledge, global lineage, and the enduring strength of Hawaiian culture. This production is more than a performance; it is a reclamation of identity and a celebration of the resiliency embedded in each of our genealogies.

As we experience this journey, we also reflect on the spaces that uplift and preserve these stories. Since 1922, Hawai'i Theatre has served as a cornerstone of Honolulu's cultural landscape. Guided by the mission of the non-profit Hawai'i Theatre Center—established in 1984—we strive to provide rich entertainment, cultural, and educational experiences, while supporting the revitalization of downtown Honolulu and enhancing the quality of life for our community.

May Kinohi inspire each of us to recognize the legacy we carry—and the future we shape by honoring it. Thank you for joining us tonight, and for being part of the story that continues to unfold within these historic walls.

With gratitude,
Gregory Dunn
President & CEO, Hawai'i Theatre Center

Performance Schedule:

Date: November 21st, 2025

Duration: Approx. 90 minutes

No photographs, audio, or video recordings may be made of the production.

AMY HĀNAIALI'I - KINOHI CONCERT

Amy Hānaiali'i is one of Hawai'i's most celebrated and influential vocalists, known for her award-winning artistry, vocal mastery, and deep commitment to cultural storytelling. In Kinohi, Amy explores the vast landscape of her heritage—Hawaiian, English, Ojibwe, and Norwegian—unearthing the pathways her ancestors traveled and the histories they carried.

Having recently journeyed through Norway and London while tracing her genealogy for the Emmy Award-winning PBS series "Family Ingredients," Amy brings to the stage new mele born from that experience—songs rich with insight, imagery, and ancestral memory. Her work serves as a reminder that understanding who we are begins with honoring where we come from. As she reflects, "How do you know where you are going, if you don't know where you are from?"

Joining Amy in this full-circle moment is her cousin, renowned Kumu Hula and fashion designer Kumu Micah Kamohoali'i, together with his acclaimed Hālau Nā Kīpu'upu'u. Their presence completes the lineage that began in Hawai'i, expanding across oceans and generations, and returning home through the power of art, movement, and shared ancestry.

Venue: Known as the "Pride of the Pacific," the beautiful Hawaii Theatre has been entertaining Hawai'i's audiences for more than 100 years. The theatre's popularity has grown and continues to charm eager show-goers and curious audiences alike.
